

Evidence-based Chronic Disease Management for Dental Caries

Dental teams control caries for as many teeth as possible in the community setting, patients/parents are educated and informed about needs that cannot be met in that setting and the urgency to seek further care by a dentist, and (when available) patient navigators provide assistance to patients with urgent needs.

